SENATOR DeCAMP: There are! How many?

CLERK: There are two proposals.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Does one deal with changing the whole way of setting the tax rates?

CLERK: Senator, I really don't know. I haven't had a chance to review them.

SENATOR DeCAMP: And does one deal ...

PRESIDENT: Point of order. State your point, Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, I would suggest that since this is a body of equals and the Clerk is an employee, if Senator DeCamp has questions he wants to propose to somebody to whom he thinks has introduced legislation he should ask that Senator to yield.

PRESIDENT: All right, I will accept that. All right, if you want to ask the Senator who introduces a bill...

SENATOR DeCAMP: That sounds like a good idea.

PRESIDENT: ...that is perfectly agreeable.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Sure, why not? Senator Newell, do you have some proposals up there ready for introduction?

SENATOR NEWELL: I do, Senator.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Does one of those have to do with changing the whole system of setting the tax rates?

SENATOR NEWELL: I have a proposal up there that will allow the Legislature to set the tax rates. That is correct.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Does another one have to do with changing the whole reserve system?

SENATOR NEWELL: It does change the question of reserve but, Senator DeCamp...

SENATOR DeCAMP: The defense rests.

SENATOR NEWELL: ...I want to remind you that my remarks are not over the introduction of bills. I said the Governor has got the votes. It is his Legislature. It is his session and none of these bills are going to pass and that is what
