would like to go home Saturday and we are not even going to approach that unless we get these bills moved. So it is our thought that tomorrow there will be those two bills on Select File and let's hope that we can move enough to solve part of your personal problem so you won't have to remain here until the first of January. We will adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

SENATOR CLARK: Senator Nichol has something to add.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Senator Nichol.

SENATOR NICHOL: Well, just a question, Mr. Speaker. Was it our plan to convene reasonably early Saturday morning or had you decided on a time yet?

SPEAKER MARVEL: We hadn't decided on a time but I think if you want to get things done for the weekend and we are successful in moving some things tomorrow that is fine, but we are also going to have to meet as you indicate, probably Saturday morning unless the Chair is overruled.

SENATOR NICHOL: If we have just Final Reading Saturday morning, do you have any idea how long that would take? Maybe perhaps Pat could answer that.

SPEAKER MARVEL: About two hours.

SENATOR NICHOL: Two hours, okay. Had we decided, if we advance like you propose, what time would we meet Saturday morning do you suppose or have you decided that?

SPEAKER MARVEL: Well sometime before nine o'clock.

SENATOR NICHOL: Okay, I would suggest eight.

SPEAKER MARVEL: Okay, the motion now is that we adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning. All those in favor of that motion say...excuse me? No, we'd better leave it at nine o'clock, Senator Chambers. The motion is to adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning. All those in favor of that motion say aye, opposed no. The motion is carried. We are adjourned until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.
