

November 5, 1981

CLERK: Mr. President, I have three Attorney General's opinions. I think the one that we have been waiting on is addressed to Senator Warner. If I may, I will read the opinion?

PRESIDENT: Proceed to read the opinion. I would ask everyone to listen because I don't believe we have copies of these yet. So if you will listen carefully, it is not long, is it, Mr. Clerk? Please listen.

CLERK: Mr. President, the opinion is addressed to Senator Warner. (Read Opinion No. 149 found on page 101, Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp was first.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Mr. President and members of the Legislature, I don't object to them coming up with an opinion but this is getting silly. All you have to do is read page 3. It doesn't say anything in that particular portion of the call, it says and I read, "To include in addition to the subjects enumerated therein the following subjects: Amend laws relating to Aid to Families", blah, blah, blah. Now you tell me that that ain't broad enough for us to do something. I just think (interruption).

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, we are going to have to have some kind of a motion to address.

SENATOR DeCAMP: I move we adjourn.

PRESIDENT: All right. That is not debatable.

SENATOR DeCAMP: Until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: Except for the Speaker who can address himself to this question. Speaker Marvel.

SPEAKER MARVEL: (Microphone not activated.)

PRESIDENT: I don't have any part in the explanation of it. The question is the matter that is going to be on the desk tomorrow on Final Reading, it is in the state in which the Attorney General says you can't do it, if I understood the opinion correctly. So it is whether you want to go ahead and pass that in that state or if you want to do something today to try to stop...do you have a motion?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: (Microphone not activated.)
