

January 4, 1989

really controversial senators in the Legislature. I think he makes every attempt to understand the issues before his committee and every attempt to be fair to those who appear before it. There is no reason why that should change. It is my pleasure to nominate Howard Lamb for Chairman of Transportation.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Any further nominations for Chairman of Transportation? Any further nominations for Transportation? Senator Lynch.

SENATOR LYNCH: Hearing none, Mr. Chairman, I would move the nominations be closed and we cast a unanimous ballot for Howard Lamb for Chairman of Transportation.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All those in favor say aye. Opposed nay. Senator Lamb, you are the continuing Chairman of Transportation Committee. Congratulations to you. Urban Affairs. Senator Korshoj.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Mr. President and members, I want to start out by thanking Senator Lynch and the Rules Committee for suspending the rules today so we could save the best till last. Thank you very much. It is my pleasure and honor to nominate Senator Hartnett for Chairman of the Urban Affairs Committee. I served on the committee for two years. He has done an excellent job, conducted good hearings. We had fun at those hearings but it was very businesslike. He was very respectful to the committee and to the people testifying. So, therefore, I nominate him.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Any further nominations for Urban Affairs Committee Chairman? Senator Korshoj.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: I move the nominations cease and we elect him by unanimous vote.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. Senator Hartnett is the continuing Chairman. Congratulations to you, Senator Hartnett. That completes the Standing Committees. Senator Wesely, please.

SENATOR WESELY: Mr. President, members, I move to proceed to the election of the Chairpersons of the Special and Select Committees.

PRESIDENT: You have heard the motion. All in favor say aye.