January 9, 1989

PRESIDENT: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...then here you come.   You know what you make me think of when you do this?   The story   you   told   about yourself   that   I   listened to very closely when you were riding it.   He was riding he motor scooter and a pheasant flew into his head and knocked him off his motorcycle   and   he   was   known   as Senator "Birdbrain" ever since.   I hope that you will adopt this amendment.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion?   If not, Senator Chambers, would you like to close on your motion?   All right.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: I'll ask for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall   the   house   go   under call?   All   those   in   favor   vote aye, opposed nay.   Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 9 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call.   Will you please return   to your   desk   and   record your presence.   Mr. Sergeant at Arms, I understand that Senator Landis has his group across the hallway, so you may notify them.   Please record your presence.   Members of   the   Legislature,   so that I don't need to haze you from now on, I suggest that you please return to your   desk.   It   saves time   as we gradually gather together if I don't have to mention your name in public.   Thank you.   Senator Lamb, would you return to your desk, please.   Please record your presence   so   we   can begin.   Senator Chambers, did you ask for a roll call vote?   I didn't...okay.   Senator Landis and Senator Rod Johnson.   We're looking for Senator Rod Johnson.   Senator Chambers, may we start without Senator Rod Johnson?   Okay.   All right.   The question is the   adoption   of   the   Chambers   amendment   to   the   amendment.
Machine vote and a record vote has been requested, so would   you please   vote.   Have   you all voted that care to?   Have you all voted?   Record, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Read the record vote   as   found   on   page 110   of   the Legislative   Journal.)   18 ayes,   25 nays,   Mr. President,   on adoption of the amendment.

PRESIDENT: The amendment to the amendment fails.   Mr. Clerk.
