

January 13, 1989

had started out kind of lightheartedly and I want people to know that now I'm as serious as a heart attack and I do need this vote to suspend the rules so that we can take up the main motion which I will explain again.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Discussion on the motion to suspend the rules, Senator Wesely.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members, I'd ask Senator Chambers to yield for a second if he could.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Chambers, would you respond.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, I will.

SENATOR WESELY: Okay, Senator Chambers, this first motion is to suspend the rules for then a subsequent motion you need to make, right?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Right, so that we can then consider the subsequent motion.

SENATOR WESELY: What would the second motion be again, I'm sorry?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: It would be one that would allow the special committee, should it develop any legislation, to offer that legislation, but it would have to be as a committee bill which a majority of the committee members had signed.

SENATOR WESELY: Okay, so at any point throughout the session you find a need for legislation, you would be able to introduce it. Once introduced, it would be referenced to one of the Standing Committees, I understand.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Oh, yes. The only thing this would relate to is the right to introduce the bill, then it would be referenced in the ordinary course of events.

SENATOR WESELY: Then I would support this motion.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Further discussion on the motion to suspend the rules, Senator Hannibal.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Yes, thank you, Mr. Speaker. May I ask a