

Pearl Harbor veterans and the prisoner of war people, their plates, in line with all these other special plates. This is for 100 percent service-disconnected (sic) disabled people. So that, in essence, is the bill and the amendment and I would recommend the adoption of the committee amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Discussion on the committee amendments. Senator Baack.

SENATOR BAACK: Mr. Speaker and members, I am in agreement with the amendments. I think that they are...I have no problem with them whatsoever, and they do bring all these license plates in line, and I have no problem at all with them, so I would urge the adoption of the amendments.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Any other discussion? Any closing, Senator Lamb? Thank you. Shall the committee amendments to LB 142 be adopted? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, please.

CLERK: 29 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of committee amendments.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The committee amendments are adopted. To the bill, Senator Baack.

SENATOR BAACK: First, I think that Senator Lamb did a good job of explaining the bill. What the bill does is it says that any veteran of the Armed Forces who is classified by the Veterans Administration as 100 percent disabled can apply for a license plate, and the license plate will display the letters D.A.V. on the bottom of the plate. And the costs are covered by the amendments that were put on by the committee, so if there is any question, I will be glad to try and answer them, otherwise, I would just urge advancement of the bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Any discussion? Senator Chambers, discussion.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, this is one of those alluring bills that it is difficult for anybody other than myself to oppose. These license plates are becoming advertisements, billboards, and representations of practically every type of thing that a person can prevail on some senator to bring before the body. I am going to vote against it. It has nothing to do with being against disabled American veterans or anybody else. The bill requires a person
