

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, thank you. It is withdrawn. Thank you. We are back to the committee amendments. Senator Smith, yours is the next light.

SENATOR SMITH: I guess all I will be doing is just asking the floor's vote in support of the committee amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Hall, would you care to discuss the committee amendments?

SENATOR HALL: No, on the bill.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Wehrbein, on the committee amendments?

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Mr. President and members, I guess if I understand right, Senator Smith, you are proposing to...this amendment primarily proposes to allow a charge to bar owners to pay for the...

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Smith.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: ...oh, it removes it.

SENATOR SMITH: ...requirement for the retailers to pay the cost of publishing the sign, instead it places the cost in the Liquor Commission. It is only about $500, and they agreed that they could bear the cost.

SENATOR WEHRBEIN: Right, I concur with that. I had it turned around. Okay.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Korshoj, on the committee amendments.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Mr. Speaker, members, I have a question for Senator Smith.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Smith.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: You are drawing up the amendment now, right?

SENATOR SMITH: No, we're not.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Oh, when we going to do that?
