

February 3, 1989

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Shall we move on to the resolution, LR 20, please. Excuse me, looking at the wrong day. How about number five, the confirmation report by Senator Withem.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Withem, as Chair of Education, would report favorably upon the appointment of Wynn Smithberger Nuckolls and Andrew Hove to the Board of Trustees of Nebraska State Colleges.

PRESIDENT: Senator Withem, please.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, the committee did hold a hearing on the appointments of Wynn Smithberger Nuckolls and Andrew C. Hove to the Board of Trustees of the Nebraska State Colleges. We did inquire into their backgrounds and were favorably impressed with the two appointees, that they were going to be taking their responsibilities seriously. Just, parenthetically, yesterday I had an opportunity to visit with the Board of Trustees to witness the work of these two new appointees and I was very favorably impressed at that time also. I would encourage the body to vote favorably upon these nominations.

PRESIDENT: Senator Schellpeper, please.

SENATOR SCHELLPEPER: Thank you, Mr. President and members. I just wanted to also echo that same thing. Wynn Smithberger Nuckolls is from Stanton. In fact, I went to school with her. She is a very intelligent individual and I really recommend her. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: The question is the adoption of the confirmation report...

SENATOR WITHEM: Do I have a closing?

PRESIDENT: Excuse me, yes, you may. I am sorry.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, I was going to refrain from this but beings Senator Schellpeper performed bad service here for Wynn by stating that he is a contemporary of hers, the committee was also very favorably impressed that on her resume she indicated that she was in the Young Republicans at the same time that Loran Schmit and Jerry Warner were Young Republicans. Anybody that is that honest and is not afraid to have that type of an
