CLERK: 27 ayes, 0 nays, Madam President, on the advancement of LB 489.

SENATOR LABEDZ: LB 489 is advanced. Mr. Clerk, LB 318. The call is raised.

CLERK: Mr. President, 318 was a bill introduced by the Banking Committee. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 10, referred to the Banking Committee, advanced to General File. I have committee amendments by the Banking Committee pending, Madam President.

SENATOR LABEDZ: Senator Conway, on the committee amendments.

SENATOR CONWAY: Thank you, Madam Speaker and members. LB 318 was, as you mentioned, a Banking Committee bill. Primarily, the bill in itself, and I'll give a quick explanation on the bill itself because the committee amendments become the bill, and all they really were was a technique of rewriting it and replacing language that was erroneously eliminated in 1987. Conceptually, what the...what 318 does is takes individuals that do not fall
