

two senators in Dannebrog at one time. Well, I think that then I should vote for it. I would like to give the remainder of my time to Senator Kristensen.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Kristensen, are you up to it?

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: I believe so. Being Kristensen with a "K", and ending in "sen", and living in Minden, who has had Danish Days for many years, and now have broadened our scope to Ethnic Days, I am not sure that I can support you, Senator, on making Dannebrog the Danish Capital of the world, unless you would like to annex Minden into Dannebrog and we would be happy to come and share the Danish Capital of Nebraska. Our tax base is wonderfully high. I guess I can support this as long as Minden is always welcome up to Darnebrog. Is that agreeable?

SENATOR ROGERS: No problem there.

SENATOR KRISTENSEN: Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Wesely. Thank you. Senator Korshoj, Senator Coordsen next.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Mr. Speaker and members, I would like some kind of special privileges then when I go to visit Dannebrog because I happen to be a hundred percent Dane, and I think in the resolution you mention kale soup. Isn't the real name for kale soup "gronkal"?

SENATOR ROGERS: I won't argue with you.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: I think you have probably got it worded wrong, but I still think that you should give us some special privileges when we do visit the town, us thoroughbreds or full bloods, so I guess I am going to have to support you if you change the name of that kale soup. Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Coordsen, please.

SENATOR COORDSEN: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, members of the body. My name also ends in "sen". However, I am more fortunate than my ex-roommate because my ancestors were part of a group of the Danish people that lost the war to Germany, and given the present economic problems, position of Germany in the world, maybe we ought to have a combination Danish-German center,
