

Ninety-first Legislature, First Session.

Mr. President, the Education Committee, whose Chair is Senator Withem, who was referred LB 89 instructs me to report the same back to the Legislature with the recommendation it be advanced to General File with committee amendments attached. That is signed by Senator Withem as Chair. (See pages 921-22 of the Legislative Journal.) And that is all that I have, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Coordsen, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR COORDSEN: A point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: State your point please.

SENATOR COORDSEN: To introduce the doctor of the day, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Okay.

SENATOR COORDSEN: It is my honor this morning to introduce the doctor of the day, Dr. Tim Sullivan, if you would rise, please, Tim. Tim will be joining us in Thayer County at the Thayer County Memorial Hospital at the completion of his family residency so I would like for you to see this morning a new addition, an outstanding addition to rural health care in Nebraska. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Is he your doctor?

SENATOR COORDSEN: He hopes that he is not my doctor.

PRESIDENT: Well, we do, too. Thank you for introducing him and, Doctor, welcome to the body, glad to have you here. Senator Nelson, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR NELSON: Mr. Speaker, members of the body, I, too, am so pleased to have Tim Sullivan join us today and Senator Coordsen doesn't know what their community is getting. I can attest for Tim. I don't think I changed his diapers but I may have. Tim's parents, I went to school with his mother. Tim's parents live across the section, our kids in school, could not come from a finer Christian family, and they are very fortunate to have Tim join them, and with that, I wish to wish Tim all the luck in the
