

March 1, 1989

North America's largest independent record labels, bringing fame and fortune to the music world and to his hometown, Omaha, and to Nebraska. Chip Davis and his wife, Sharon. (applause) Chip has just been awarded the Trailblazer Award. The second award, the Wagonmaster Award goes to a former president of Bozell and Jacobs in Omaha, one of the fastest growing major agencies in the country. That organization merged in 1986, I believe, giving birth to Bozell, Jacobs, Kenyon and Eckhart. (phonetic) They are bringing billings over $1 billion servicing around the world. Chuck Peebler was with J.L. Brandeis and Sons and he is now vice-president, then was president. He is now situated in the New York office of the new firm. They now operate in 40 countries around the world. Chuck Peebler, Jr., winner of the Wagonmaster Award. Chuck. (applause) And finally, a gentleman from Columbus, Nebraska, who wins the Pioneer award, Jack VanBerg, a native of Columbus, identified for many years with the thoroughbred horse-racing industry. In fact, Mr. VanBerg has been inducted into the Thoroughbred Racing Hall of Fame. In recent years his horses have won over 5,000 races for purses totalling over $52 million. Last year his most famous horse, Elsheba, became thoroughbred racing's all-time money earner. He now lives in Louisville, Kentucky, also having just bought a ranch in southern California. Mr. Jack VanBerg, formerly of Columbus, winner of the Pioneer Award. Jack. (applause) On behalf of the Legislature, Mr. President and members, we want to congratulate each and every one of these winners today. Thank you for allowing me to take the time.

PRESIDENT: And, gentlemen, thank you for being with us. I wonder, Jack, where were you when I needed you? And, Chip, I want you to know that we enjoyed your recent Christmas album back and forth across the state, both your '89 version and your '84 version, and you're great. And thank you, all three of you gentlemen, for visiting us today. We appreciate it. Good luck to you in the future, too. Mr. Speaker, would you like to work further and say something about tomorrow?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Mr. President, I don't believe so, other than to say I would move we adjourn until nine o'clock.
