any circumstances, to be considered for a transfer. But there is a hoop that must be jumped through first. So that is what the amendment that I handed around the other day that is being considered now would do. And I would like to ask Senator Baack a question at this point, if I may.

PRESIDENT: Senator Baack, please.

SENATOR BAACK: Certainly.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Senator Baack, do you have your language ready yet that you would be offering, or the amendment that you propose?

SENATOR BAACK: It's not quite ready yet. There are a couple of other amendments up there, if maybe we could just hold back on yours and deal with the other two first, then I'll be ready with mine.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Then, Mr. Chairman, I would like to...Can we pass over this amendment then?

PRESIDENT: Yes, sir.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Because his would be to this one, that would facilitate action Thank you.

PRESIDENT: You both agree to it, I assume.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, we do.

SENATOR BAACK: Yes, that's fine.

PRESIDENT: We'll pass over Senator Chambers' amendment and move on. Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: Mr. President, the next amendment I have is from Senator Hefner. (Hefner amendment appears on page 1162 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Hefner, please.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President, members of the body, this amendment that I have was passed out a little while ago. What this does is delay the implementation for one year. This would
