

agriculture counts for about $7 billion in our industry in this state. I think that you have on your desk a sack that contains a number of items that were grown and processed here in Nebraska. You have a letter from Agriculture Department Director, Roy Fredericks, that also recognizes the day, as well as those who contributed something into your sack. So I hope that you'll have a chance to review the letter and recognize these folks who contributed something to the Ag Day sacks that you have on your desk. As I said, I think this is a very important resolution, one that recognizes the men and women in production agriculture as well as the support groups that agriculture needs in our agribusiness community that help us as well. So I urge the body to adopt the resolution. I hope that you'll take just a few moments to review the contents of the sack that you have sitting on your desk and, hopefully, you will take time to thank those individuals and those companies that provided something to this sack today and recognize that Nebraska agriculture is very important to our economy. This is just a very brief resolution that honors the men and women in that industry.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is the adoption of the resolution. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of LR 60.

PRESIDENT: The resolution is adopted. While we're...prior to going on, I'd like to introduce three prominent, well-known Nebraskans under the south balcony. Senator Labeledz wishes to announce that we have these guests and they are Cail Yanney, would you please stand; and Sue Scott, and Gene Mahoney. We're happy to have you visiting us this morning. Thank you for coming to visit us. Senator Beyer, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR BEYER: Mr. Speaker and colleagues, point of personal privilege.

PRESIDENT: Please state your point.

SENATOR BEYER: Going along with Senator Rod Johnson and Agriculture Day, I've also handed out envelopes from the Nebraska Agriwomen's group that has been an annual affair. This is a group that is associated with the American Agriculture
