

April 11, 1989

LB 84

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Okay, and there...

SENATOR CHIZEK: You might find yourself in a better position to go ask her than I. (Laughter.)

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yeah, why, because I'm a brother "Repelican"? Cain and Abel, remember that. (Laughter.)

SPEAKER BARRETT: One minute. One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: But what I think the legislators are going to have to do, because this might be a difficult bill to explain to the public, is be sure that they have 30 votes. I'm not going to do anything to delay or hinder the bill. I have a couple of amendments which, if I thought they had a realistic chance of being added to the bill, I would offer, not to harass the bill but to bring some equity. They would have no chance, I'm sure. So I'm not going to harry or harass the bill, and I don't wa. anybody, based on what Senator Chizek just said, to think that the Governor or any other "Repelican" has me in his or her pocket. I want the day to come when somebody is going to tell me how to vote, going to tell me what to say, tell me what not to say, tell me where to go, when to go and when to be there. I cannot wait. I cannot wait. But on this bill I'm going to have to part company with what is being done because I don't see it as...

SPEAKER BARRETT: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...really being just and equitable to all who are entitled to some consideration.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Chizek. Thank you. Senator Abboud. Thank you. Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Question.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Won't be necessary. Thank you, sir. No other lights on. Senator Lamb, would you care to close on your amendment.

SENATOR LAMB: Just to remind the body what the amendment does. Very simple amendment. For 1989 it sets the date back to September instead of July 1st, September 1st for application for