

qualified underneath the bill.

SENATOR CONWAY: Correct.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Now we're going to talk about the second year.

SENATOR CONWAY: Correct.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Are there going to be more people qualified to draw on the fund the second year?

SENATOR CONWAY: If the bill works, I hope so.

SENATOR HABERMAN: There will be.

SENATOR CONWAY: Yeah, they get less money.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Who gets less money?

SENATOR CONWAY: The teachers. If you've got a fixed amount in the pot and you have more qualifying...(interruption)

SENATOR HABERMAN: So you won't need so much money in the fund or you will need more money in the fund?

SENATOR CONWAY: To listen to Senator Withem, this money isn't enough. What it is is a pool and whoever qualifies will get their proportionate share of the pool.

SENATOR HABERMAN: No, I'll ask my question again so you can tell me yes or no. The second year, if the bill passes and if it works, will it take more than $20 million?

SENATOR CONWAY: It will take exactly the amount of money you put into the pool. That doesn't change.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Where does the $20 million come from?

SENATOR CONWAY: From the state treasurer, General Funds.

SENATOR HABERMAN: So you don't know how much we're going to put in the pool the second year.

SENATOR CONWAY: In the bill, we said we're putting 20 million
