

the kill motion but I did want Senator Warner to know why I didn't vote on the other one, and I hope, too, that if there is a problem, which obviously there is, that, Senator Warner, that you will talk with Landis and the other senators who are on the bill and try and work it out for Final Reading because I feel that we should do the right thing and the correct thing, the correct thing, in the bonding issue of this bill. It is a wonderful bill, I think, to bring...to help the municipalities all over the state, and so I don't want to see it falter because of a bonding mechanism or a defect in that part of the law, of the bill. Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Wesely, Senator Scofield next.

SENATOR WESELY: Mr. Speaker, members, Senator Warner's comments I think point out exactly where we are at in the session. It is crunch time, ladies and gentlemen. We are down to the last few weeks. We have got too many bills, too many amendments, too much to do, and not enough time to get the job done, and the frustrations of Senator Warner and Senator Landis are felt by all of us. They all may be a little bit under the surface right now but they are all going to come out in time as we try and struggle through these very difficult issues, and this issue, frankly, among all of them, is not as difficult as what we are about to face. What we have got to recognize, and I think we need to think through this as we go forward, is how vitally important it is to give ourselves time to talk to one another, to share our feelings and thoughts about these bills and the amendments. There is amendments to LB 330 that we came up with and they were perfectly good in some instances and we just didn't know enough and couldn't share enough with one another to deal with them, and then in some cases over the noon hour, we sat down and had a chance to talk to one another and things got worked out. LB 182, a bill that we fought over on General File, Senator Coordsen, Senator Smith, and I, and others sat down, we have worked it out. We are not all happy and tremendously excited about it but the time we spent together, we spent about two hours, I think, together, we have worked something out to where we could at least go forward with the legislation and hopefully work it out. And we just have got to recognize we don't give ourselves enough time here off the floor to deal with one another, to talk to one another, and to work with one another on these issues, and when a late amendment comes up like this, I don't think we should come down on Senator Warner and recognize the fact that he has got a million other things he is
