

dwelling not open to the public. There is a variety of things that can happen if the state does not get involved. I don't believe this is a commitment to the state...on the part of the state to a long term type of thing. This is a study to look at the property and to determine what should occur with it. Some of the questions Senator Wehrbein raises, hopefully, will be answered by that study. The intent of the legislation, the intent of the...or, excuse me, of the appropriation is to keep the doors open rather than closing the doors so that all we can do in the future is regret. I would hate to see us back here next year regretting that nothing happened. Rather, I would see us looking at it and saying, yeah, we did preserve an important piece of Nebraska's architecture. Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Korshoj.

SENATOR KORSHOJ: Question.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Korshoj poses the previous question. Again, five hands? I do. Shall debate cease? Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Shall debate cease? Please record.

CLERK: 25 ayes, 0 nays to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Debate ceases. Senator Haberman, to close.

SENATOR HABERMAN: A question of Senator Warner, please.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Warner, would you respond?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Senator Warner, in the Appropriations Committee language it says, $50,000 General Funds for facility maintenance. Are some of the funds going to be used to maintain the facility?

SENATOR WARNER: I think, as I recall...you're talking about Joslyn now?

SENATOR HABERMAN: Yes.

SENATOR WARNER: As I recall, there was some...a maintenance person to be...to participate in the fund and there could be some utility costs. I do not recall that there was construction cost or maintenance in that sense but...
