

summary.) And, Mr. President, Senator Wesely has amendments to 813. (See pages 2033-37 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, do you have a priority motion?

CLERK: Well, Mr. President, I do have a motion that's been filed. Senator Chambers would move that LB 769 be indefinitely postponed. Senator Labeledz would have the option to lay the bill over, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Senator Labeledz, what do you think? We'll give you a minute to think about it.

SENATOR LABEDZ: I need more than that.

PRESIDENT: As long as you want.

SENATOR LABEDZ: We'll take it up, we'll take it up.

PRESIDENT: Okay, we'll take it up. Senator Chambers, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, there is a song that I heard a long time ago, and I don't know the words of it, but the part that stuck in my mind, and it's a chauvinistic song, hard-hearted Hannah, the vamp of Savannah, would be an old softy compared to the people on this bill. There is a common expression, keep 'em ignorant, pregnant and barefooted, and that is what this bill is designed to do. You put in the sham allowance of bypassing the notification to be given to the parents by establishing a procedure for utilization of a judge. Then those who are to be benefited by this are denied that information. The Legislature made a conscious and deliberate decision to deny the young women that we pretend, hypocritically, to be so concerned about, deny them that information. Then you say that a lot of times young women fall into these dire straits because they are uneducated, they don't have a positive self-concept and there are all types of things which, if presented to them, might make them feel they have a choice and an alternative. So what does the Legislature do? Makes a deliberate decision to vote down the opportunity for these young women to go to school. Again, all this pretended concern for young women. This is a cruel, hard-hearted Legislature. It's worse than an old unjust judge that Jesus gave a parable about. There was a widow who kept coming to this unjust judge saying, avenge me of mine enemies,
