SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...must establish some political action committees.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Ashford, please, followed by Senator...oh, I'm sorry, you were closing. The question is the adoption of the Chambers amendment to the Lindsay amendment. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 37 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Chambers' amendment to the Lindsay amendment.

PRESIDENT: The Chambers amendment is adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, the Banking Committee will be conducting Executive Session in Room 2102 now. Banking Committee in Room 2102.

PRESIDENT: Do you have something further, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Mr. President, we're back to the first portion of Senator Lindsay's amendment. (The Lindsay amendment appears on page 2109 of the Legislative Journal.)

PRESIDENT: Senator Lindsay, please.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Thank you, Mr. President. Colleagues, I think this portion of the amendment has been crafted into a good definition of...excuse me, a good criminal liability provision. Again, I would, I guess, commend Senator Chambers on, even though he does not like the bill and he promised that he would do nothing to help the bill, he does have an interest in making sure that criminal liability sections are very well defined and well clarified and that, I think, is the case now. The amendment now does refer to physicians who perform in violation of this act. It does make it a Class III misdemeanor. I would urge the adoption of this amendment.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Labeledz, please. Senator Chambers, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, really I ought not to have done what I did, Senator Lindsay, because as long as the issue is left up in the air it could have been unconstitutional, the whole bill, and I probably should
