

bill. I sometimes wonder of those in this body that are so much in favor of parental notification, and I am too, why they would so diligently persist in passing a bill which, in fact, guarantees the parents will not be notified. It boggles the mind. It makes one wonder what the agenda is, what are we really trying to do here. Parental notification, obviously, is not what we're trying to get across here. If so, loopholes would have been taken out, loopholes such as we have here. And, again, because of the ridiculous way the bill has been drafted, and I don't fault anyone in Nebraska, they just copied the ridiculous way the bill is drafted in Minnesota that is now under appeal in the Supreme court. The way the bill has been drafted...

PRESIDENT: Time.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: ...parental notification will not happen here either. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Dierks. The question has been called. Do I see five hands? I do. And the question is, shall debate cease? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. We're voting on ceasing debate. Senator Dierks, please.

SENATOR DIERKS: Mr. President, I would ask for a call of the house, please.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 13 ayes, 2 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber as soon as possible, please. Roll call vote has been requested. Please record your presence. Please record your presence. Looking for Senator Abboud and Senator Beck. Senator Byars, Senator Conway. Senator Coordsen, would you like to light up, please. Thank you. Senator Goodrich, would you record your presence. Senator Haberman, Senator Lynch, Senator Robak, Senator Schmit, Senator Weihing, Senator Wesely. We're still looking for Senator Wesely, Senator Lynch, Senator Landis, Senator Schmit, Senator Haberman, Senator Conway, Senator Weihing, Senator Robak and Senator Haberman. Senator Lynch,
