of organizations in the state, the Omaha Police Department, the Nebraska PTA, the Grand Island Police Department, the Madison County Civil Defense, the Nebraska County Judges Association, the Nebraska Association of Chief's of Police, the Nebraska Crime Commission, Nebraska Sheriff's Association, and the Nebraska State Bar Association all like McGruff. So, I guess, if there are any questions, I'd like to answer them, and ask for the adoption of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: Any further discussion? If not, the question is the adoption of the resolution. Oh, Senator Moore, do you wish to close?

SENATOR MOORE: I just want to help McGruff the Crime Dog (grrrrr) take a bite out of crime. (Laughter.)

PRESIDENT: All those in favor of the resolution, after that, please vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on the adoption of the resolution.

PRESIDENT: The resolution is adopted. I suppose you want a point of personal privilege, Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Yes, if I could have a point of personal privilege, I would like to, if they would let McGruff, now that we're done debating McGruff, if we could bring McGruff in and introduce McGruff and give him a big legislative welcome. There he is. (Applause.)

PRESIDENT: He fits in well with the basketball players. (Laughter.)

SENATOR MOORE: Thank you, Mr. President and members.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Isn't that a handsome pair leaving the body this morning. Thank you, Senator Moore, and thank you, McGruff. Good-bye. We'll move on to the confirmation report, Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Smith, as Chair of the General Affairs Committee, would report on the appointments of Robert Duncan, Pauline Dye, Susan Renken and Ann Spence to the Nebraska Arts Council.
