

Kristensen, the house is under call. Senators Lamb and Kristensen, please report to the Chamber. While we're waiting, we have some special guests with us this morning under the balcony. Former Bill Clerks Orville Gottula and Larry Brayman are with us; former Assistant Sergeant at Arms George Lutzi and George Moats; and former Chief Sergeant at Arms Norm Hubertus and, of course, Mr. Ray Wilson who is about 93 years young, who had 19 years with us in this Legislature. Would you gentlemen all stand and be welcomed. Thank you. We're so pleased to have you back with us. Senator Lamb, please, the house is under call. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: We have an officer who could facilitate matters.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Mr. Clerk, would you please proceed with the roll call vote on the motion to reconsider.

CLERK: (Roll call vote read. See page 2298 of the Legislative Journal.) 25 ayes, 16 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to reconsider.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The motion prevails.

CLERK: Mr. President, I now have pending the motion to suspend the rules. That motion may be found on page 2066 of the Journal.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The call is raised, but the Chair, before proceeding to discussion, would like to recognize special guests in the north balcony associated with the Visitor Program Service of Meridian House International. From Poland, we have some guests who were invited to the United States under the auspices of the International Visitor Program of the U.S. Information Agency. We have with us Dorota and Krzysztof Komornicki from Poland, both journalists, also with their interpreter whose name I do not have and if I did have it, I might not be able to pronounce it. Would you folks please stand. Under the north balcony. Excuse me, under the north balcony. Thank you so very much for being with us. They are guests, incidentally, of Senators Labedz, Robak and Schmit. Proceeding to discussion on the suspension of the rules. I have a number of lights on. Please wave off if you would care not to speak. Senator Schimek, would you care to speak? Senator Schimek, please. Thank you. Senator Bernard-Stevens, would you
