PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Crosby, please.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, I have a couple of questions, Senator Hall, because Senator Landis brought out some things that I hadn't thought about. Is a membership...when you buy a membership at Joslyn is that like dues or a donation?

SENATOR HALL: Senator Crosby, that would be like dues under this definition.

SENATOR CROSBY: And do you...what benefits do you get maybe from it, aside from...?

SENATOR HALL: Oh, I happen to be a member at Joslyn. I know that I get additional opportunity to go to some viewings and some lectures and things like that that I never take advantage of. But things that if somebody walked in off the street, paid their $3.00 to enter the museum, or whatever the cost is, would not have eligible...or be eligible for as well as voting rights that is basically the "determinating" factor that the Department of Revenue has used to decide whether or not it's taxable for sales tax purposes.

SENATOR CROSBY: And then Joslyn is a nonprofit corporation organized under the state laws, right?

SENATOR HALL: It's my understanding.

SENATOR CROSBY: So there would be a difference between that and a health club or something like that, right?

SENATOR HALL: Oh, clearly, this would not be applicable to a health club. It would not be...I mean, Senator Landis's point was if you...if you open the door, let this group of people get their foot in, you know, the health clubs will come and kick it down. You know, that's...

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, but there is a difference.

SENATOR HALL: There's...

SENATOR CROSBY: One is profit making and one is not.

SENATOR HALL: ...clearly a difference. The fact of the matter is that the health clubs are closing right and left and Senator
