Crosby, they would be eligible.

SENATOR CROSBY: Eligible. Okay.

SENATOR HALL: Eligible. That would be up to that...the County Tourism Board that the money would be allocated from. So they would clearly be eligible. I would hope that they would but it would be left up to that group that's currently in place right now.

SENATOR CROSBY: Okay, thank you.

SENATOR HALL: You bet. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Haberman, please, followed by Senator Moore.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Mr. President and members of the body, I'm kind of caught here with my boots off so I sent somebody down to get my file and this is a lot deeper than we think it is. So while I'm waiting for my file to come...here it comes. Oh, boy, I'll give a few minutes of my time to Senator Conway and then he might be gracious enough to give it back to me.

PRESIDENT: Senator Conway, you may take off.

SENATOR CONWAY: Mr. President, I would like to ask Senator Hall a couple of questions. Senator Hall, as the line of questioning was started we got into the membership versus the admittance tickets, singular type of fashion. If...and we'll use Joslyn or any other organization that would fall under this, if you have an annual membership in many of these organizations, does that not entitle you to an admission, in essence, by showing that membership, you have free admission?

SENATOR HALL: In many cases, it...that's virtually all it is. And when it is strictly and solely, Senator Conway, just in annual admissions, then that, under the Revenue Department interpretation, is subject to sales tax.

SENATOR CONWAY: So if we were to do this and you paid, let's say a $20.00 annual membership, and that gave you a pass that gave you uninterrupted service of admittance to that facility, if you were doing it on a singular fashion, you would be then paying a ticket price plus sales tax even though both of them
