

Ak-Sar-Ben than I will make on LB 84, and I must confess to you, Senator Chambers, you're right. I did make $141 on a $4 bet. I went to Ak-Sar-Ben because Senator...What's your name? Schmit was going to buy the first ticket on the simulcast for the Kentucky Derby the following day. I had the honor of buying the second one. Senator Schmit picked a horse that was a favorite. I picked a horse. Clever Trever, Senator Schmit? And made a $2 bet. I only bet on that horse because I am so faithful to the State of Nebraska and it was a Nebraska trainer and that's the only reason I bet on that horse. Unfortunately, I did not win; Senator Schmit did. But then it came to the daily double. That following Sunday I was married 47 years so I bet another $4 on 4 and 7, and 7 and 4, and left the race track and Senator Schmit remained. He told me later my 4 and 7 won $141, and that's the way it was. I don't want you to think that I'm at Ak-Sar-Ben every time those horses are running, 'cause that's not true. Does that give me absolution from Senator Chambers?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes, my child.

SPEAKER BARRETT: And now...

SENATOR LABEDZ: He just said, go and sin no more.

SPEAKER BARRETT: And now your time has expired. Senator Lamb.

SENATOR LAMB: Question.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Question has been called. I do see five hands. Shall debate now close? Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record.

CLERK: 2^r ayes, no nays, to cease debate, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Debate ceases. Senator Chambers, would you care to close?

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Yes. Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, some of you may remember a commercial that some teachers objected to because it said, how do you spell relief, and they spelled it "R-O-L-A-I-D-S", and some children actually thought that was the way the word was spelled, some of the very young children. So in this one we ask, in terms of tax relief, how do you spell property tax relief: "P-I-D-D-L-I-N-G". That's what it amounts to. When you have an example of a Governor
