LB 247A, 247

remarks and giving the time to me. I filed this motion just to get a chance to talk about the need for the E clause on this bill. Now that I have reminded you of that, I would withdraw the motion.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. May I introduce some guests, please, of a member in our Clerk's Office, Dick Brown. Under the north balcony, we have Amie Callahan and C.J. Brown, who are members of his family, and also Bonnie Coley of the American Hereford Association and David Allen of the Nebraska Hereford Association. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you for visiting us today. Mr. Clerk, do you have anything else on the bill?

CLERK: Nothing further, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: If you'll return to your seats, please, we'll continue with Final Reading of 247E. (Gavel.) Please return to your desks. Thank you. Proceed, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Read LB 247 on Final Reading.)

PRESIDENT: Having complied with all the provisions of law relative to procedure, the question is, shall LB 247 pass with the emergency clause attached? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: (Read record vote as found on page 2504 of the Legislative Journal.) 36 ayes, 11 nays, 2 present and not voting, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: LB 247 passes with the emergency clause attached. May I please introduce a group of guests in the north balcony. Senator Rogers has seven sixth graders from the Loup County Public School with their principal and teacher. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. And Senator Hefner has a group from Coleridge, Nebraska, it's a women's study group club and their spouses. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. And thank you for visiting us today. LB 247A.

CLERK: (Read LB 247A on Final Reading.)
