

May 23, 1989

PRESIDENT: Okay. Mr. Speaker, please.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Mr. President and members, we still don't have anything back. I know that it's coming, but, in view of what I said a moment ago, I have instructed the Clerk to prepare for each office copies of any veto messages that do come in between now and five o'clock so that we will have them available, those that come in before five o'clock. And inasmuch as we did have a tremendous week last week, we really...we had an extraordinary week last week, I think probably the time has come for me to say I move we adjourn until nine o'clock tomorrow morning.

PRESIDENT: You've heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. We're adjourned till nine o'clock tomorrow morning. Very good, ladies and gentlemen. Thank you.

Proofed by

Marilyn Zank
Marilyn Zank