LB 813

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the portion of LB 813 be overridden as explained by Senator Robak and Senator Smith? All those in favor of the override vote aye, of the reconsideration I should say, I'm sorry, the reconsideration, vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Robak, please.

SENATOR ROBAK: Yes, could we have a call of the house, please?

PRESIDENT: The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 2 nays to go under call.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Would you please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber please return. Please return to your desks so that we can see if you are here. Thank you. Record your presence please. Senator Warner, please. Senator Rogers, please. Senator Abboud. We are all here except those excused. Did you ask for a roll call vote, Senator Robak? And reverse order has been requested. Please return to your desks. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. Vote appears on pages 2751-52 of the Legislative Journal.) 23 ayes, 16 nays, to reconsider, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. The next one, Mr. Clerk. The call is raised.

CLERK: Mr. President, the next motion I have is by Senator Morrissey. Senator Morrissey would move to override the Governor's veto with respect to Section 52, the state colleges, as I recall, is it not, Senator?

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Yes.

PRESIDENT: Senator Morrissey, please.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Yes, Mr. President and members, I hope this is not the start of what will be a long fight in years to come to defend the state college's funding and particularly Peru State. I initially thought going strictly with the Peru State angle because I was real concerned that their ratio of students
