

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Senator Crosby.

SENATOR CROSBY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker and members. It is a real pleasure to support this override of this particular amount of money for the Committee on Humanities. The humanities covers such a wide variety of disciplines and brings so much to our lives. Remember the wonderful Chautauquas that we've had over the past 10 or 15 years. The humanities, in great measure, were the originating group that started those. A lot of seminars in the humanities disciplines have occurred in this state. The tremendous...I have personal knowledge of the tremendous support and programs they had for the Bicentennial Celebration of the Constitution. They had a wonderful speakers' bureau available, and I just can't say a whole lot more because Senator Bernard-Stevens really said it all. But I will vote to override. Everything I've voted for today has been for people and this, again, I think is for all the people in the state. Humanities and the arts are a parallel group of disciplines that all of us enjoy in one way or another so I would urge you to join us in voting to override this particular one.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Any other discussion? Senator Langford, did you care to discuss it or call the question? Not necessary. Thank you. Any closing, Senator Bernard-Stevens? Thank you. The question is then the override of the Bernard-Stevens motion on the veto on the Committee on Humanities. Those in favor of the override vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? Have you all voted, if you'd care to vote? Record.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 13 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to override.
