

wanted to do, either last year or since January 12th. He also has the opportunity on Select File to do the same thing. It's very difficult, even for me, to vote for my own motion but I'm going to have to do it today because I know what's happening here. And, Senator Landis, I can recall in the World-Herald that you said this was going to be a holy war, and Senator Chambers said you can kiss the session good-bye, and evidently Senator Bernard-Stevens has taken the place of Senator Chambers today. And, Senator Landis, this was a holy war now for three hours. And I urge the members of the Legislature that are present here to vote for overruling the Chair and we'll go on with my suspension of the rules and, hopefully, there will be 30 senators here to support it. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the Chair be overruled? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. It requires 22 votes at this time with those present. Record, Mr. Clerk, please. Record vote has been requested.

CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 451 of the Legislative Journal.) 24 ayes, 14 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to overrule the Chair.

PRESIDENT: The Chair is overruled. Now we're back to the original Bernard-Stevens amendment, without the division. And it is in its total. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Thank you, Mr. President. We're back on the original amendment and I would like to divide the question in the following...divide the amendment in the following manner. Hopefully, this will be more acceptable to the body. There will be six divisions instead of 18. Lines 1 through 7, on page 1, would be the first division. Lines 1 through 7, on page 1, would be the first division. The second division would be from line 8, page 1, to line 1, through line 1 of page 2. Should I go on, Mr. President?

PRESIDENT: Yes, you may.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Okay. The third division would be on page 2, from line 2 down to line 15. The third division from line 16, page 2, over to the...including line 2 of page 3. The fourth division then being from line...including line 3 of page 2, including line 18 of page...excuse me, including line 2. I will get it right yet. Starting with line 3, page 2, up to
