

PRESIDENT: No, not on this...

SENATOR CROSBY: Not on this question, okay.

PRESIDENT: ...question, not on this.

SENATOR CROSBY: Well, I will state my other things later maybe. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: All right, thank you. Senator Bernard-Stevens, followed by Senator Hefner, and Senator Labedz. Senator Bernard-Stevens, may I recognize, before you speak, Dr. Paul Paulman, who is sitting under the south balcony and is our doctor for the day. Dr. Paulman, will you stand so we can have a look at you and recognize you and thank you for being our doctor today. Senator Bernard-Stevens, I have forgotten, did you open on this yesterday? If so, I shouldn't let you speak.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I guess I can't remember, I really can't.

PRESIDENT: I can't either because I left.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I will leave it to the judgment of the Chair, and if he says that I have, then I will go with that.

PRESIDENT: You get to close, would that be sufficient?

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I will leave that to the judgment of the Chair.

PRESIDENT: That was the judgment of the Chair. Okay, thank you.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: Wait, is that a ruling?

PRESIDENT: Yeah, well, no, it is a rule. Senator Hefner, please.

SENATOR HEFNER: Mr. President, and members of the body, I was going to call the question but I thought maybe I had better not do that because that is what we are talking about in overruling the Chair. So, but I am going to support the Chair because I think it is very important that we get to moving along here. We
