

school teacher in North Platte says, no, that is not how our system should work, and I am rebelling against that and will continue to rebel against that until the majority understands that there are fair rules, and when those rules are violated, people have to stand up and say no. And that is what I will continue to do for that reason and for only that reason. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. And the question is, shall the Chair be overruled? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. It requires 21 votes. Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: As in the past, I would like to have a call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 12 ayes, 0 nays to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber please return to the Chamber and record your presence. Senator Hefner, please record your presence. Thank you. Senator Bernard-Stevens, your presence, please. Thank you. Senator Langford, please. Senator Landis. Thank you. Senator Nelson. Senator McFarland. Senator Robak. Senator Haberman. Senator Wesely. Senator Korshoj. Senator Robak. Senator Nelson. Senator Haberman. Now we are looking for Senator Haberman. Ladies and gentlemen, the question is, shall the Chair be overruled? A roll call vote has been asked for. Will you please return to your desks so that we may hear your response. It requires 21 with the present numbers present. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: (Roll call vote taken. See page 498 of the Legislative Journal.) 1 aye, 27 nays, Mr. President, on the motion to overrule the Chair.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. Now the question is, shall debate cease on the Chambers amendment to the bracket amendment? Senator Bernard-Stevens.

SENATOR BERNARD-STEVENS: I am not going to take much time on this point of order, but is it the Chair's ruling that this will
