

under the north balcony. Mr. Russ Van Vleet and Jeffrey A. Butts from the Center for the Study of Youth Policy, the University of Michigan. Also, under the north balcony, Judge Sharon McCully, Juvenile Judge from Salt Lake City, Utah. These people are here to present a study on risk assessment of committed delinquents at Nebraska's Youth Development Centers. They will be here for a couple of days. Any members are encouraged to visit with them should they so desire. Copies of a draft report are available to all members of the Legislature. Would you members...would you folks please stand and take a bow. Thank you. We're pleased to have you with us. Also as guests of Senator Dennis Baack, in the south balcony, we have eight students from Sidney Public Schools with their instructors. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you, we're pleased to have you as our guests today. Mr. Clerk, LB 163.

CLERK: Mr. President, 163 is on Select File. It was discussed yesterday by the Legislature. I do have a priority motion on the bill. Senator Morrissey would like to bracket LB 163 until February 7, 1990.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The Chair recognizes Senator Morrissey.

SENATOR MORRISSEY: Yes, Mr. Speaker and members, I mentioned yesterday that we needed to move forward, but move forward cautiously. And I made my case for a state plan, and I think...and funding of a state plan, and I think this body, yesterday, made a very strong statement that that is something that is something that is very much needed; the coordination provided by a state plan to focus the efforts of the folks and give them the framework to work within to address their own solutions. But we're having some discussion, since noon yesterday, on the cost of a state plan. And we're getting some wide array of figures, all the way down to $250,000. And I'm not sure if that's a state plan for just municipal solid waste, or if it's a comprehensive state plan that I was talking about to address hazardous waste, construction debris, medical waste and on and on and on. So I would like to take some time to investigate just a little farther because I don't want to ask for any more money than we need. Although my intention was also for that money to filter on down to the local people, the local subdivisions and such to help them in their planning and in their...the efforts that Senator Johnson had mentioned in recycling projects and anything having to do with managing their
