

February 21, 1990 LB 642, 1221, 1241

SENATOR ASHFORD: No. The seven days has to elapse, if there is no return, then the gun may be sold.

SENATOR HABERMAN: Okay. That can happen with the bill. Let's say, for example, that it's mailed late Friday, Saturday the mailman might pick it up. There's Sunday, and it's delivered on Monday, it takes two days to check it out. They mail it back Thursday, your seven days are gone. You said you don't have to mail it back, but they have to let them know it's no good. Then we've been talking about a compromise. You heard Senator Ashford say there is no compromise, there is no compromise. So I say, folks, it's a bad piece of legislation, it's drawn badly. I understand there is going to be an indefinite postpone motion put up. You won't be able to vote on it because we're going to be asked...for it to be laid over. So I would say what we went through this morning is for naught, but we'll have the same discussions when it comes back before us. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Mr. Clerk, you have a motion on the desk?

ASSISTANT CLERK: Yes, Mr. President. Senator Hall would move to indefinitely postpone the bill.

PRESIDENT: Senator Ashford, you have a decision to make. You want to take it up today, or...

SENATOR ASHFORD: Oh, I'll go ahead and....

PRESIDENT: Today?

SENATOR ASHFORD: No, not to day.

PRESIDENT: Not today. That will be laid over. All right. Anything for the record, Mr. Clerk, at this time?

CLERK: Yes, Mr. President, I do. Mr. President, your Committee on Banking, Commerce and Insurance, whose Chair is Senator Landis, reports LB 1241 to General File with committee amendments attached. That's signed by Senator Landis. And Urban Affairs Committee, whose Chair is Senator Hartnett, reports LB 1221 to General File. (See page 898 of the Legislative Journal.)
