

all.

PRESIDENT: Senator Rogers, would you make the motion to accept the E & R amendments, please.

SENATOR ROGERS: I move that we adopt the E & R amendments.

PRESIDENT: Okay, you have heard the motion. All in favor say aye. Opposed nay. They are adopted.

CLERK: Mr. President, Senator Rogers, you had an amendment printed earlier. Senator, I have a note that you want to withdraw that first amendment. Is that...

PRESIDENT: Senator Rogers, please.

SENATOR ROGERS: And then do you have the 2657?

CLERK: I have 2657. (The Rogers amendment appears on page 975 of the Legislative Journal.)

SENATOR ROGERS: Right.

CLERK: Yes, sir.

SENATOR ROGERS: Okay.

PRESIDENT: We'll withdraw the first one and you may talk about the second one, please.

SENATOR ROGERS: Okay. This was just something to clarify...I think you all have a copy on your desk, if you see it, but this was...concerned the veterinarians and this amendment simply states that all testing done pursuant to the program shall be performed by an accredited veterinarian except that this shall not restrict an employee of the state or federal government in performance of his duties. The new amendment, it added the words "performed by or under the direct supervision of an accredited veterinarian."

PRESIDENT: There is no further lights on. The question is the adoption of the amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Please vote if you care to. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator
