

February 27, 1990 LB 315, 1118

on Final Reading, we will proceed to item seven on the agenda following Final Reading, starting with LB 315. Mr. Clerk, will you please read LB 1118.

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Read LB 1118 on Final Reading.)

SPEAKER BARRETT: All provisions of law relative to procedure having been complied with, the question is, shall LB 1118 pass? All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Have you all voted? Record, Mr. Clerk.

ASSISTANT CLERK: (Read record vote. See page 1020-21 of the Legislative Journal.) The vote is 40 ayes, 0 nays, 9 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LB 1118 passes. The call is raised, but I would request that members stay close to the floor as we try to proceed through committee priority bills. Anything for the record before we start on 315, Mr. Clerk?

CLERK: Not at this time, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. Will you bring us up to date on the status of LB 315, please.

CLERK: 315, Mr. President, was a bill introduced by Senators Lindsay, Hall, Schimek, Labeledz. (Read title.) The bill was introduced on January 10 of last year. At that time it was referred to Business and Labor. The bill was advanced to General File. I have committee amendments pending by the Business and Labor Committee.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The Chair recognizes the Chairman of the Labor Committee, Senator George Coordsen.

SENATOR COORDSEN: (Mike not on.) ...and now we're addressing the committee amendments. If you recall, several weeks ago we had the worker's compensation bill in which there was a general agreement reached between the labor and business interests. I would suggest to you that that does not exist on 315. I would also suggest to you that the committee amendments that were on the bill when it was advanced from committee last year were the businesses offer at that particular time, but there was no agreement made. I know that there are several amendments filed to the committee amendments. I would suggest to the Chair that
