

house and a roll call vote.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you. The question is, shall the house go under call? Those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The house is under call. Members, please return to your seats and record your presence. Those outside the Legislative Chamber, please return and record your presence. Unauthorized personnel, please leave the floor. The Chair is pleased to pause and note that Senator Kristensen has a guest under the north balcony, Doris Thompson from Minden. Would you please stand and be recognized. The Chair is pleased also to introduce two guests under the south balcony, Jennie Gutierrez from Lexington and Arlene McFall from Holdrege. Would you ladies please stand and be recognized. Thank you. We're glad to have you with us. Senators Lamb, Landis, Langford. Senator Elmer, please check in. Senator Haberman, the house is under call. Senator Schmit, the house is under call. Senators Haberman and McFarland, the house is under call. Senator Chambers, Senator Haberman is on his way, may we proceed. Thank you. Members, return to your seats for a roll call vote. The question before the body is the adoption of the Chambers amendment to the Hefner amendment to 315. Mr. Clerk, call the roll.

CLERK: (Roll call vote read. See page 1044 of the Legislative Journal.) 16 ayes, 23 nays, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The motion fails. The call is raised. Mr. Clerk.

CLERK: Mr. President, I believe we are back to consideration of Senator Hefner's amendment as amended.

SPEAKER BARRETT: For discussion on the Hefner amendment, Senator Wesely, followed by Senator Morrissey.

SENATOR WESELY: Thank you, Mr. Speaker, and members, I guess we're back to whatever is left of the Hefner amendment. And, as I recall, the Hefner amendment has a number of provisions now, primarily would be the provision that if you're employed and you lose your job as a result of some drug or alcohol problem, you would then be denied unemployment compensation benefits unless
