

reconsider...okay, we're reconsidering the Beck amendment. Simply, folks, I think we've got a good bill in fine shape right now. The possibility to address tires is in there. We bring a good program, money can be granted to address the tire project right now. I think we've got a good vehicle. It's been a while, it's taken us a while, a lot of work. We've all worked on it pretty hard. We have hashed all of this out and I just think we should support the bill in its present form. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: Senator Moore, would you like to close?

SENATOR MOORE: I would just move for the reconsideration of the Beck amendment. Everybody knows what we're voting on and I...just to see if the votes are there to do it, let's go.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is the reconsideration. All in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: I move for a call of the house.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. The question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, please.

CLERK: 20 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Will you please record your presence. Those not in the Chamber, please return to the Chamber and record your presence. We're looking for Senator Lamb, Senator Bernard-Stevens, Senator Goodrich, Senator Haberman, Senator Chambers. Senator Goodrich, Senator Scofield. While we're waiting for some to come in, may I introduce some guests, please, of Senator Schellpeper. Under the north balcony, we have Russ and Jeri Kumm of Stanton, Nebraska. Would you folks please stand and be recognized. Thank you for visiting us today. Senator Chambers, please. Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Is Senator Warner excused?

PRESIDENT: Mr. Clerk, is Senator Warner excused?

SENATOR MOORE: Go ahead and call the roll.

PRESIDENT: Okay, roll call has been requested and the question
