

because I wanted to ask him some questions and he was headed out for nobody knows where.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Landis, would you respond?

SENATOR LANDIS: I'm on my feet.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Landis, is...wait a minute, I haven't asked the question yet.

SENATOR LANDIS: Oh. I guess I'll leave.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Landis is a very knowledgeable person and he serves on the Revenue Committee so I would just like to ask him what his perception is of the results when LB 361 is factored into this whole equation.

SENATOR LANDIS: Senator Withem actually says he has some numbers available and you might directly ask him on that point.

SENATOR LAMB: Senator Withem, do you want to share those with us? I couldn't get them out of the Revenue Committee. I couldn't get them out of...

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Withem.

SENATOR LAMB: ...any other place.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yeah, I would be happy to. It's my understanding, from talking to Mr. Kemper back there, that they just completed it last night and the number $9 million, based on the total amount of increase because of all of the valuation increases, comes out $9 million. Some of that is increase in valuation in urban areas so it's less than $9 million, would be the number.

SENATOR LAMB: That came from the Department of Education?

SENATOR WITHEM: That's my source, yes.

SENATOR LAMB: Is that correct? Yeah, well, I...you know, I guess I chatted with them yesterday and they didn't know and I chatted with the Department of Revenue this morning and they didn't know, so I guess I'm amazed that you could get those numbers and I couldn't. But, nevertheless, it certainly is
