CLERK: (Record vote read. See page 1203 of the Legislative Journal.) 42 ayes, 0 nays, 7 excused and not voting, Mr. President.

SPEAKER BARRETT: LB 956E passes. LB 1050.

CLERK: Mr. President, I have a motion on the desk. Senator Moore would move to return the bill for a specific amendment, the amendment being to strike the enacting clause.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The Chair recognizes Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: Yes, Mr. Speaker and members, LB 1050, I just want to have a few seconds to make sure on this rainy morning we know what this bill does. I know some other senators want to say a few things too. Remember, this is the bill that simply recognizes the problem that we created a few years ago when we allowed two of our technical community college areas in the western part of the state to tax...to have a maximum limit, limit more than nine, up to 11. And this bill simply says we recognize the problem so to solve the problem we'll raise everybody up to 11. And I guess the problem I have always had on this floor is that past skirmishes on these maximum levies have been massive blood lettings that take a long time. This one, for a variety of reasons, has moved along here with probably less than 50 minutes debate all the way along. I think it's one of those things, what you're doing is you're raising the maximum levy limit for the technical community colleges across the state. And it's one of those things that I don't
