

University of Nebraska at Lincoln for 12 years with highest distinction and dedication", and the words "at Lincoln" should be because University of Nebraska is part of...or is part of Lincoln, UNO and the med center, so we should be striking "at Lincoln". I would urge you to vote for this amendment. Sorry about that.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Any discussion on the amendment? If not, the question is the adoption of the Hefner amendment. All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please. We need 25, excuse me. Don't record yet. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 26 ayes, 0 nays, Mr. President, on adoption of Senator Hefner's amendment to the resolution.

PRESIDENT: It is adopted. Now, on the adoption of the resolution. Senator Lowell Johnson.

SENATOR L. JOHNSON: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, I'd like to thank Senator Hefner for providing us with this resolution honoring a man who has contributed so much to our higher education in Nebraska, and who has earned the respect and admiration of many in this body. For the past 12 years, Dr. Ronald Roskens, as President of the University of Nebraska, was an effective administrator of this state's university system. His stewardship over the policies and programs greatly added to the prestige and quality of the University of Nebraska system. Nebraska is proud that Dr. Roskens will be administering the Agency for International Development. We are pleased that he will be joining the company of other notable Nebraskans such as Clayton Yeutter, Skip Hove and others serving in important posts in Washington. I gladly join Senator Hefner this morning in recognizing the dedicated service the Roskenses have given to our university system and to the State of Nebraska. Thank you, Mr. President.

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Moore, please.

SENATOR MOORE: I would just like to join Senator Hefner and Senator Lowell Johnson in commending Dr. Roskens. You know, given the facts and what has transpired in the last six to seven months in this state, I think it's high time that the Legislature and the state, you know, recognize Dr. Roskens for what he has done with his new appointment, as well as what he
