or whatever it is, around 70,000 from the Appropriation Committee to go ahead and do this.

SENATOR HANNIBAL: Thank you, Senator Hefner. Senator Chambers, please.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, this is a carryover from the last debate. Senator Hall is one of the funniest people in this body, but he...I'm the only one (laughter) that he victimizes when he's really...when he's really very humorous. But what I was going to say (laugh), I'd like to ask Senator Barrett a question, if I may. Senator Barrett, did you...did you say specifically what would be on the video?

SPEAKER BARRETT: I did not say, although I have viewed two other videos that have been produced in Missouri and in Minnesota.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Would any...would any of our actual activities be...

SPEAKER BARRETT: Yes,...

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...on the video?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Some of the senators will be on there, too?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Actually, Senator Chambers, they were extremely well done. I didn't want to take a lot of time to go into it, but in both cases they were broken into three divisions--the law, the process, and I've forgotten what the third one was, in which the cameras came into the legislative chamber, the cameras went into the committee hearings, the camera showed the special interests, the lobby, the whole bit. They were extremely well done, very educational.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. If they could...if, Senator Barrett, I'm going to agree with it, I'm going to support this, but I think we could probably get more interest from the youngsters if we had actors and actresses, and I would like Sidney Poitier to be my on-screen appearance (laughter), and I would like them to dub the voice of James Earl Jones, the voice
