

of Darth Vader, then people would truly say what needs to be said with reference to me. But, in all seriousness, if a video could be put together that is as well done as those that Senator Barrett has mentioned, and the interest, not only of very young students and others in school, could be focused on what the Legislature does, and people could become almost as aware of the Legislature as a branch of government as they are of the court system and the executive branch, then it will be money well spent. But I think we ought to be able to screen whatever is decided on and take a vote to see whether or not we agree with the way we are portrayed in this video. But I'm going to trust Senator Barrett's good judgment, and I presume that, if this appropriation is agreed to, that some kind of system will be...or methodology will be established for producing the video. Senator Barrett, would you answer just for the record.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Yes, absolutely. The Educational Television Network will furnish a producer, the production facilities, the manager of the whole project will be handled by, hopefully, Lynn Moore (sic) or our own Unicameral Information office, there will be an oversight committee of six to eight members of this Legislature.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you. And when my part comes up, I'll settle for MGM or RKO. (Laugh.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Scofield.

SENATOR SCOFIELD: I don't know if I can top, Mr. President, the lines of Senator Chambers. I just wanted to throw out one thought about this, and maybe we should write an amendment into this to say that none of the taping can be done the last two or three weeks of the session, so this thing doesn't turn into an R-rated movie. That's all. (Laugh.)

PRESIDENT: Thank you. Senator Barrett, would you like to close, please?

SPEAKER BARRETT: Thank you, Mr. President. I do appreciate the comments that have been made. And I would hope that you would approve this expenditure. It's not a great amount of money, and yet I'd like to see it done now. Now is the time, I believe, to continue to open the process. It's a video about the Nebraska Legislature, its process, its people, its unique history. And the primary purpose of the video is education. And I believe
