

whatever amount you want to give us. Like I mentioned, just because we had...the receipts were up 10 million, I don't want to spend it all in this one place, but if you think you have the votes...for the 300,000, I will sure take it, Scotty.

SENATOR MOORE: Well, and I'm saying the criteria applied to the last amendment would be exactly the same as the one applied to this, but I would venture to guess if I followed through with this, I may get one...Senator Schellpeper and I would be the only two up there. Oh, I don't know, given the way that we're doing things, they may get 25. But, nevertheless, I withdraw the amendment.

SPEAKER BARRETT: The amendment is withdrawn. Back to a discussion of the Schellpeper amendment. Senator Chambers, would you care to discuss it? Followed by Senator Weihing.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, since Senator Scott Moore thought so much of this proposal that he was going to multiply the amount being sought many, many times, I would like to ask him a couple of questions, and also because he prefaces his remarks with being from the farm, having an interest in these things and a bit of knowledge to go with that, I presume. Senator Moore...

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Moore.

SENATOR MOORE: I never said anything about a bit of knowledge.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Well, do you have some knowledge of the subject?

SENATOR MOORE: I have some knowledge, yes.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. You had mentioned that the standards of the criteria are the same in considering this proposal as would apply to the previous one that Senator Kristensen brought to us.

SENATOR MOORE: Uh-huh.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: All right. How many of those tractors were fashioned by Nebraskans?

SENATOR MOORE: I don't know the answer to that. They were all
