

amendment, is that right?

SENATOR WITHEM: It extends it.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, I believe in number one of the amendments to LB 1059, AM3066, you say strike the Hefner amendment, AM2385.

SENATOR WITHEM: Yeah, you have to strike it to do it that way, but the language you inserted will continue to be used.

SENATOR HEFNER: Okay, I guess that's a little confusing, but I'll take your word for it and work with you and your counsel on that.

SENATOR WITHEM: Okay.

SENATOR HEFNER: Thank you.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Schmit, please.

SENATOR SCHMIT: I'll pass at this time.

SPEAKER BARRETT: Senator Hall, would you care to discuss the amendment?

SENATOR HALL: I would. Thank you, Mr. President and members. Senator Withem, would you respond to a couple questions?

SENATOR WITHEM: Yes, I would, Senator Hall.

SENATOR HALL: Would you explain what amendments, and I apologize for not being here, but would you explain what amendments are in this amendment? What combined amendments are in this, and which ones are not?

SENATOR WITHEM: Yeah, I'd be happy to. First of all, Senator Hall, as I understood your request,...

SENATOR HALL: (Response inaudible.)

SENATOR WITHEM: ...it's 2845...

SENATOR HALL: Ron, I was unaware of the fact that we were going to consolidate all of these, and I apologize for that, I didn't know, and then I heard your introduction. It sounds like some
