

and bewilder the people, but it should not work. If it were not an issue that will be brought to their remembrance every time they look at their paycheck, the public could probably be tricked on this like they have been on a lot of other things done by this Legislature, but when they look at that paycheck and see a reduction in what they take home, the first thing they are going to say is how and when did it happen? Then when that is explained to them that the Legislature did it, they are going to say, why? And when people say, well, it reduces your property tax, and they look at it and see, in fact, that it has not done that, they will say, I have been doubly taken by the Legislature again and it is going to be like one of those children that everybody loves until it turns out to be a little monster, then you don't find a mother or father who wants to claim it.

PRESIDENT: Time. Senator Chambers, you may close if you like.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman, I will let that be my close.

PRESIDENT: Okay, thank you. The question is, shall the Smith amendment be reconsidered? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman,...

PRESIDENT: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...I would like a call of the house and a roll call vote.

PRESIDENT: Okay, the question is, shall the house go under call? All those in favor vote aye, opposed nay. Record, Mr. Clerk, please.

CLERK: 14 ayes, 1 nay to go under call, Mr. President.,

PRESIDENT: The house is under call. Will you please return to your seats. Unauthorized personnel, please leave the floor, and those not on the floor, please return to the Chamber. Please look up to see if your light is illuminated. Senator Labeledz and Senator Schmit are the only two excused. Senator Conway, would you light up, please, that is your light. Senator Conway, thank you. Senator Schimek, please. Thank you. Senator Wese'y and Senator Hall. We are all here now except the two that are
