

would you be willing to walk down to the Governor's Office and ask her to veto the Commonwealth bill?

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Landis.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Is that bill...what I'm driving at is this is an important bill to Senator Labeledz. It's her priority just as I believe Commonwealth was yours last year?

SENATOR LANDIS: It was not my priority, but it is a very important bill. I understand the distinction there.

SENATOR LINDSAY: Uh, huh.

SENATOR LANDIS: I'm sorry, would you explain...

SENATOR LINDSAY: My question is, is breaking this roadblock important enough to you to destroy a bill as important enough to you as Commonwealth?

SENATOR LANDIS: I'm sorry, I think it's a hypothetical and I...

SENATOR LINDSAY: Sure it is...

SENATOR LANDIS: And in that case it really doesn't serve a purpose in this situation.

SENATOR HEFNER: Time.

SENATOR LANDIS: If you're making me an offer, John, make me an offer. Otherwise, if you're asking me a hypothetical question, you know that there is no obligation to respond to that...

SENATOR LINDSAY: I think we're out of time, we're safe, but I'm not making an offer because you know how I voted on it. I'm making a point and that's just on the importance of these bills and how easy it is to ask us to go away on it when whether we're willing to do that ourselves. Thanks.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Mr. Chairman and members of the Legislature, because I was frank in the very beginning of this session about my position, I've been lambasted in the press and every other way and not once have I whimpered or whined or condemned anybody
