

is not a complete human being and I am fighting as hard as I can for those who are, unquestionably, human beings. So I think you and I will never be able to resolve our difference on the crucial point. But as far as what our motivations are, I don't think there is any question in anybody's mind about yours, no question in anybody's mind about mine, and I'm not going to temporize, I'm not going to equivocate, I'm not going to hesitate. This is a bad thing that is being attempted through the insertion of LB 769 in 688,...

SENATOR HEFNER: One minute.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and as a member of this Legislature I have to oppose it. I was elected by people in the 11th District, but in this Legislature I have the means to represent the interests and concerns as I understand them of people who live outside of the 11th District and to do as much as I possibly can to set an example for those other lonely people in other states who may be faced with similar actions, who may have to stand alone and try to find a way to stop a juggernaut. And if they can see that there are people in other parts of the country willing to undertake that lonely struggle, maybe they'll be strengthened and emboldened to do the same thing and in the process we may be able to encourage some of these women, who do agree with a woman's right to make a choice, with these men who feel the same way, to rally their forces...

SENATOR HEFNER: Time.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: ...and use a political means to resolve this issue.

SENATOR HEFNER: Senator Baack. Senator Chambers.

SENATOR CHAMBERS: Thank you, Senator Baack. Members of the Legislature, when I was in school a long time ago there was some piece of literature and one of the lines said this world is too much with us. I know that's the way some people feel about me, but, Senator Lamb, didn't I promise this morning to stay here till the morning comes if necessary? Okay, and I'm delivering on my promise. I'm not just sitting here like a knot on the log, I am participating actively in every issue, every motion, every amendment that comes before the body. I had said that I paced myself, that I have the strength and the determination to do it, but what is amazing to me is that when we merely
